LET US SHARE OUR KNOWLEDGE

Our expert tutors all share a genuine passion for great food, which is why attending one of our courses is always such a rewarding experience.

MEET OUR TUTORS

Since Bettys first opened in 1919, we have built up a remarkable team of specialist craftsmen and women including master bakers, chocolatiers, confectioners, chefs and tea and coffee blenders. Bettys Cookery School is unique in being able to draw from this rich resource of talent and experience for our courses.

Our Cookery School tutors are accomplished, professional chefs with a wealth of catering experience between them. Some are Bettys through and through, whilst others have worked as head chefs in country house hotels and well-renowned restaurants. They deliver an outstanding level of training that will inspire you – it's one of the main reasons why many of our students keep coming back, course after course.

OUR COOKERY SCHOOL

You will find a bright, modern, air-conditioned and spacious teaching kitchen for you to work in, with high quality equipment and appliances. Our chef demo area is equipped with an HD video screen, ensuring you can see every detail of the techniques being taught. And our local supply partners provide an array of fresh and seasonal ingredients to cook with.

We are located on a private site next to Bettys award-winning Craft Bakery in Harrogate, where all the cakes, chocolates and breads are made for our six Café Tea Rooms.
